LABOR JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION

Provide assistance on jurisdictional assignments

Industry organizations offer services which can help minimize any delays caused by jurisdictional disputes or issues.

- The Labor Department of the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Missouri will provide information concerning area practice, labor jurisdictional agreements, settlements, and methods used in solving jurisdictional disputes.
- This Department was established to help Design Professionals specify items in such a way as to minimize jurisdictional disputes and to aid Contractors in making correct job assignments.
- A complete jurisdictional reference system has been developed by the Department, and information on jurisdictional matters is available to Design Professionals and Contractors upon request.
